SAYS BOARD RIGHT ABOUT SALARY CUT

J. E. Shaw, Substantial Farmer of Beat 2, Says He Has Received Little Help from Grenada County Demonstrators—Favors Right Kind of Agent.

Editor Sentinel:

Allow me a little space in your paper to express myself about the question of a farm demonstrator now before the people of the county. You are doing right in trying to give the public the ins and outs of the matter. A farm agent that would get on the job and stay on it is all right, but in my opinion it has been a number of years since the county had one that did this I do not think the county ever had a man that equaled Mr. Turner. I think the board of supervisors is right in cutting the salaries of these people. Some folks get their heads set too high. At the outside I do not think a demonstrator should be paid more than the county and the government over $3,000. Not many people who have property investments are making that much. People need to step down a peg or two in figuring on what they are worth where they get their money out of the public.

It should be, and is, as much the duty of the district agent to see that a farm agent does his work wisely and persistently as it is the duty of the supervisors to do so. In the past, it has had the appearance somewhat of the district agent just finding a job for one of his men and, after placing him, then go on off.

Now I am not against the right sort of a county agent, but getting the right sort seems to have been one of our troubles. The agent should work under the directions of the supervisors and not the state or district farm agents. The way it has been makes the only case I know of where the employer has nothing to say about what and how much the employee is required to do. Another matter, when the

Forestry Campaign Completed Tuesday

Program at Holcomb School Last Tuesday Night Brings to Close Campaign of Forestry Education Conducted in Grenada County for One Week.

The southern forestry educational project, which is being sponsored by The American Forestry Association and The Mississippi Forestry Commission, completed its work in the county Tuesday. The representatives have been working in the county for the past week.

While in this county motion pictures were shown, giving the forests and forest life of the south. These pictures were shown in the larger schools throughout the county in an effort to reach the young school children and at the same time to reach as many adults as possible. Talks were made by the representatives in the smaller schools in the county. Practically every school was visited. Not only were these motion pictures and lectures given but forestry literature was distributed at all of the schools and to persons interested.

This educational program is being carried on in an attempt to bring to the people a better idea as to the value of the forests and also to show them the damages that are occurring each year by the custom of "woods burning" that so many people follow. The fires that go over the lands every year do great damage. Possibly the greatest damage done by these fires is the destroying of the young or "baby" trees of the woods. These small trees which are for future generations are destroyed by the fires. They are killed outright. Not only are the small trees killed but the fire damages the larger trees by eating into the trunk, causing "cat faces" and fire scars. These scars cause a lowering in the quality of lumber produced. These scars are also the breeding place for insects.

One of the greatest losses being suffered in north Mississippi by this custom is the loss of soil. A great part of the best soils are lost each year by the washing away or gully of the hill sides. This loss can be attributed to the custom of burning over lands. On some of these slopes the trees have been cut down and then each year fire is allowed to burn over. These fires will kill the young trees and grasses and clear the sides of the hill. When the rain comes there is nothing to check the force of the rain and it hits upon the bare soil. When this occurs there is a rapid runoff of water causing the best soils to be washed away and gradually causing the complete washing of the hillside.

These fires also destroy the good grasses. It is a known fact that cattle cannot thrive on broomsedge.

SAUNDERS STORE AN ASSET

Local Expenditures Great and Should Teach Valuable Lesson.

The Sentinel thinks that a perusal and study of the ad of the Clarence Saunders Store which appears elsewhere in this issue would be a worth while thing and a sort of eye opener for this section.

A people who do not profit by daily, monthly and yearly happenings are unfortunate and make poor progress indeed.

It will be noted from the ad that the store states among other things, the following:

It purchased last year from Grenada County farmers, fruits and vegetables, amounting in round figures to $10,000; in beef, mutton, pork and poultry from the surrounding territory to the value of $12,000; paid out in freight and drayage $2603; local taxes $356; insurance premiums, $291; for telephone and telegrams, $288; advertising, $800; office supplies and stationery, $150; local garages for gas, repairs and oil, $600; to employees $2267 and local wholesale merchants, $11,000, making a grand total paid out locally and to local people of over $41,000.00. Besides this the store has erected a new building, Clarence Saunders Store has unquestionably amounted to a great deal to Grenada and this trade territory as these payments and purchases undoubtedly show.

But the ad reveals an almost startling thing and something that the farmers and others of Grenada and surrounding territory should profit from and that is that the store bought 15,000 sticks of creamery butter and great quantities of cheese and evaporated milk and was compelled to buy 62,956 pounds of meat, nearly every pound of which could have been raised and sold in this farm territory.

Another thing, and a most important one, is that the store bought 56,000 pounds of Irish potatoes that were shipped in here from the north and mid-west, every pound of which could have been raised and sold on farms in and near Grenada. Right here it might be well to observe that when farmers raise potatoes in this section, too often it is the case that they expect to haul them to town and sell them by the wagon load and if the market is not good, they feel that they have a right to complain and get discouraged. Can't sell potatoes as cotton is sold in a lump. The farmers of the north and west sack their Irish potatoes and put them on the market as the market demands. Farmers of this territory need to follow the methods of the farmers of the north and mid-west when it comes to Irish potatoes.

The Sentinel gladly calls attention to these particular things to which the Clarence Saunders Store points with pride because it thinks they carry some lessons that should be learned and put into practice in this section.

Why make it necessary for any store or any business to go into another section to buy necessities that can readily and even more easily be raised here? Let the farmers think over these things and see if they cannot gain something that will prove beneficial to them.

11 BABIES BORN IN COUNTY DURING MONTH JANUARY

If your baby was born in January in Grenada county, you should see your name in the list below.

If your name is not listed, write the Bureau of Vital Statistics at Jackson, Mississippi.

Babies, born dead are not listed; neither is a birth listed when it is known that the baby died shortly after birth.

SUBURBAN STORE BURNS

The store of J. G. Hovis on Poplar Street was completely destroyed by fire shortly after midnight Sunday. The fire had gained considerable headway, before it was discovered and it was beyond control before the fire department was summoned. All firemen could do was to prevent the spread of the blaze to nearby homes.

The proprietor of the store resides just north of the store's location. He had just recently opened for business, renting the store from E. P. Kitchell, owner of the building and who operated the business until he moved to San Angelo, Texas, recently. Mr. Kitchell carried $750 insurance on the building which failed to cover his loss. Mr. Hovis' loss was fully covered by insurance.

No cause has as yet been determined for the fire.

Your fire losses are paid promptly when you place your insurance with Hoffa & Moody.

CUTTING OFF TRAIN AROUSES GREENWOOD

City Cooperated with Railroad Officials in Preventing Bus Franchise between Greenwood and Grenada and Third Daily Train Now Cancelled.

The city of Greenwood has unsheathed its sword because of the action of railroad officials in annulling one of the trains that has been making the trip between Grenada and Greenwood for two years or longer. The train to be taken off is the one that departed from Grenada at 5:20 p. m. and which was scheduled to return at 8:15 p. m. Greenwood says when the three daily trains to Grenada were put on that it was done in obedience to Greenwood's demand for better passenger service, that the railroad company said, in effect, to Greenwood, "We will put on three daily trains to Grenada; one train will carry you to Grenada in time to catch fast train No. 3, south out of Grenada or to make connections with trains out of Grenada north shortly after the noon hour; another one of the trains will take you to Grenada in time to catch train No. 4, north and then the last train will bring you back from Grenada on your return trip". This, it seems, satisfied Greenwood's demands for the time and up until now all has gone well. A bus line sought the privilege to put on a bus between here and Greenwood at the March meeting of the state railroad commission, which was opposed by the Y. & M. V. Railroad officials and Greenwood, as she claims, acting in good faith towards the railroad, also joined in the protest to the railroad commission against the bus lines. Immediately thereafter, an announcement came from Y. & M. V. officials that the third and last train of the day between Grenada and Greenwood would be annulled, and at this announcement, Greenwood protested. The Greenwood

SEE MAN'S IN RIVER

Search of Stranded Boat Reveals Nothing.

As she was floating Tuesday afternoon to her little son at city schools, the E. L. Boteler was little fellow as Yalobusha River to a man, apparently swimming down the stream. They could see the man's head and could see that his eyes were open and he appeared to be alive and just floating with the current. He seemed to be wearing a military cap and was a white man. Mrs. Boteler paid little attention to the incident, thinking perhaps that it was some swimmer braving the chill of the water for some early in the season sport.

But Wednesday she related the occurrence to someone who reported it to Sheriff Fred S. Nason. After making a few investigations, the sheriff concluded that it must have been a dead body and accordingly he, together with G. M. Lawrence, H. L. Pope and Charles Lickfold, in the latter's motor boat, spent more than an hour down the river below the bridge fruitlessly searching the drifts for the body.

It is barely possible that it might have been some other object which caught the eye of Mrs. Boteler and her little son but that is hardly likely since the river is so high at this time that objects in the water are easily discernible from the bridge.

The body will no doubt be found in the near future at some point many miles downstream.

Local Legion Post Reorganized Mar. 19

Many Ex-Service Men Hear Department Officials at Enthusiastic Meeting in Mayor's Office—J. A. Blount Inspires Post Reorganization.

At one of the most enthusiastic gatherings of ex-service men held in Grenada county in recent years, the Jim Trimble Post No. 35, American Legion, was reorganized with a membership of thirty-eight in the mayor's office here Tuesday night. There were more than a hundred ex-soldiers present and the seating capacity of the city hall was taxed to accommodate those who were there.

The meeting was opened when J. B. Keeton presented R. D. Morrow, state adjutant of the American Legion, who explained in a most interesting manner, the many laws that the organization had succeeded in having placed on the statute books of the nation and of the state. He enumerated many of the benefits to which the ex-service man is entitled and showed how to go about securing these benefits. Mr. Morrow traced the growth of the American Legion and told of the many things it is accomplishing in the various posts over the world.

He was followed by W. D. Owens, state commander, who made a most inspiring address on the subject "What Is the American Legion?" He outlined the various things for which the Legion stands and he too called attention to several statutes that the organization was instrumental in having passed. He said that a bill was now before Congress, unpassed, that would do more than any other one thing in preventing future wars and he predicted its passage when the ex-soldiers were in the majority in the lawmaking body, if not before that time. He stated that this bill provided for the conscription of capital, power, transportation and labor as well as man power in case of a future war and that it provided also that no price and no service should rise because of the nation's emergency. Such a law as this is what The Sentinel has repeatedly advocated for when capital is drafted along with men, those in authority will hesitate a long, long time before entering into a state of war. Mr. Owens' address was thoroughly enjoyed by the men who heard him.

It was left to J. A. Blount, formerly of Grenada but now of Charleston, to set the machinery in motion for the reorganization of the Grenada post. Mr. Blount left Grenada with the Grenada Headquarters company as one of its commanders, a lieutenant. His promotion was rapid and when he returned from the war he ranked as major.

Mr. Blount touched upon many humorous happenings during his service with the Grenada boys. He spoke of the aversion of many of them to work and told how a few had studiously avoided any kind of labor during their period of service. The organization of a live and active post here, he pointed out, was just what the boys needed to renew their friendships made in the years of 1917 and 1918 and when he had concluded, he called for "mourners" and the response was more than gratifying.

The post is to meet again on the night of next Friday, March 29, at the mayor's office to elect officers and to perfect an organization that at the end of the year will have accomplished something.

State Auditor C. C. White Says No Need of Legislative Session

Gives Figures to Substantiate Statement that There Will Be Practically No Deficit and that Unnecessary to Convene Legislature to Consider Revenue Matters—Gives Detailed Financial Statement of State's Business.

State Auditor, Hon. C. C. White, has prepared a financial statement for the benefit of the members of the legislature which is dated March 18. It will be noted that the auditor places the deficit in revenues, January 1, 1930, at only $36,793.56 which, if correct, would not justify the assembling of the legislature this year in another extraordinary session solely for raising revenue. To the actual deficit might be added the three million five hundred thousand dollars on "short term" notes authorized to be sold to meet expenses for this year and the interest on above, but according to the auditor, this will not be due until next year and can therefore be taken care of by the legislature when it meets in regular session, January, 1930. The business mind of people of the state, which includes all tax payers, should study the figures submitted by the auditor. The following is Auditor White's statement to legislators:

This financial statement which you note is necessarily an estimate based upon the past five years reports as shown in the biennial report of the State Auditor's Office.

It will be noted that the recapitulation is in schedule A for the reason that this is about all many of you will read and study. Schedule B is simply giving in detail the information in connection with schedule A. Schedule C gives the total estimated valuation of the state by counties for the year of 1929. Schedule D gives in detail the privilege licenses paid by the various agencies taxed under this law. Schedule E gives the total bonded indebtedness of the state and counties and total short term notes by state and counties for the year of 1927. Schedule F shows the number of automobiles registered during the year of 1922 and for each succeeding year through 1928. Schedule G gives the amount of excise gasoline tax received in each of the counties during the year of 1928 and the amount the State Highway Department received. Also the amount of money received by the counties from the car owners for road and bridge privilege licenses and the amount from the federal government.

It will be noted that schedule A, which is a recapitulation of our estimate on the 1929 financial situation as of January 1, 1930, indicates that on this date we will have incurred an indebtedness in the amount of $688,109.48 in excess of the amount of revenue that we will then have available, but you will note also that this estimate shows that we have paid for twelve months' business and the above amount really should be paid from a revenue received in 1930. If you accept this as the logical way in which this matter should be handled, this statement indicates that there will be a shortage of revenue of only $36,793.56 which will more than be absorbed by lapses of the various appropriations.

The first perplexing question that will confront the 1930 regular session of the state legislature will be the matter of raising sufficient revenue to pay off the $688,109.48 which will then be due. The state has always from one to four millions of dollars in trust funds, which can be transferred by authority from the legislature in one day's time which would take care of the situation until permanent revenue could be provided for.

It will be noted that the deficit for the biennium is $4,427,793.56. In compliance with the duty placed upon the State Auditor by Section 3738 of Hemingway's Code of 1927, which states in part: "He shall accompany such reports with proper explanation and point out any defects in the revenue law, and such measures as he may deem advisable for improving and increasing the revenue." The legislature will have to pursue one of three courses if they expect the revenue to balance with the appropriations made each biennium:

- (1) Increase the present rate of taxation, or
- (2) Go afield for new sources of revenue, or
- (3) Reduce appropriations.

(The financial statement, to which Mr. White refers, appears on page 3).

OFFICERS DESTROY STILLS

Sheriff Fred S. Nason, acting in conjunction with Sheriff J. T. Allen, of Carroll County, Sunday night paid visits to the places of manufacture of several moonshiners along the Grenada-Carroll line in the neighborhood of Avalon and Leflore, a section noted for its capacity production of the anti-Volstead beverage. They destroyed four stills and poured out about 400 gallons of mash.

Beat Fiver Wonders About Demonstrators

Asks Why Supervisors Don't Cut Own Salaries—Says Member from Beat Five Going against Will of Constituency Who Voted 3 to 1 for Agents.

Editor Sentinel:

Please fix up all of the mistakes in this letter. I want to say something about the demonstrators.

I thought that we still had demonstrators until the petitions began to circulate about an election, but if we have not any demonstrators we must get some because we voted for them last fall.

There is a lot of ignorance in the air. I was telling a neighbor about how they vaccinate hogs for cholera and he said that there was no cholera until the demonstrators came. Such ignorance! He said he never heard of anthrax until after the demonstrators came. The idea of blaming cholera and anthrax on the demonstrators! It is a wonder that he did not blame the boll weevil on them too.

We folks down here voted about 3 to 1 for the demonstrators and our supervisor tries to push them down all the time. It looks like the board is like the fellow who put a horse in the lot and would not feed him and would not water him but always said that he loved the horse and would not harm the horse for anything. Of course the poor horse died just like the demonstrators passed out. The salary the board offers is an insult to the man who has equipped himself so good as to lead in an agricultural way. That is lower by $1200.00 than any agent in the state gets.

How can we have a fair without the agents? Who is going to prune our trees? Who is going to help for us? Who is going to buy fertilizer for us? Who is going to sell our surplus corn and hay? Who is going to teach us to raise cotton with the boll weevil even now eating our cotton sacks?

I hear that we have demonstrators in nearly every county in the south. Is Grenada county for want of enough salary to be a black spot on the map?

I hear, though I do not know, that the money was already appropriated for in the budget, and I have heard that the board will spend the money anyway.

Why don't the board cut its own salary? Let some of the writing supervisors answer that.

After the board sees how folks are signing the petition they will think twice before they fall to give us demonstrators. There is another day a coming.

Respectfully,
BEAT FIVE.

HOTEL FACILITIES NEED INCREASING

Tourists Desiring Hotel Accommodations in Grenada Tax Capacity of Two Splendid Local Hotels—Ample Facilities Will Help Advertise Town.

Grenada needs increased hotel facilities. Quite frequently of late the two hotels of the town have been crowded to overflowing and largely by tourists. Highway 51 is being properly recognized as one of the best, and certainly most direct, routes north and south in any part of the country. Grenada is known as one of the very prettiest towns and its people as those most cordial to visitors and strangers, hence it is a most natural thing for tourists to want "to make it to Grenada to spend the night". It is painful to almost the whole town to think that any one who desires to do so is denied accommodations in Grenada. The welfare of strangers and all passersby is a matter of personal concern to every citizen of Grenada.

The town has two splendid hotels. They are well managed. The rooms and the care and attention given guests are not excelled by any town of the size of Grenada anywhere. And in passing, it is not improper to speculate about what a harvest the hotels are making because of tourists. Besides the hotels, Grenada has cafes that are beautiful, well arranged and well managed and where the best meals are served, and it has been said that the nearest way to a man's heart is via his throat. Therefore, it is seen that there are many incentives to make travelers want to "make Grenada for the night". Another thing: Grenada is very nearly midway between Memphis and Jackson, it is likewise centrally and fortunately located to accommodate tourists from the west going into Alabama and other states eastward or travelers from the east going west.

Clarksdale Chosen For 1930 Meeting

Masonic Grand Bodies Select Delta City for Place of Annual Gathering Next Year. Grand Chapter and Grand Council Elect New Officers Here.

The 81st annual convocation of Mississippi Royal Arch Masons closed here last Friday with the selection of Clarksdale as the meeting place for the 1930 sessions. Oxford made a strong bid for the next convocation and lost to Clarksdale only by a small majority.

The question of convening the annual convocation at a separate time from the other grand bodies was a popular one and future gatherings of Royal Arch Masons are to be held separately.

Grand officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: R. W. Hinton, Lexington, grand high priest; I. J. Schaff, Corinth, grand king; I. H. Jones, McComb, grand scribe; J. F. Dixon, Natchez, grand treasurer; E. L. Faucett, Meridian, grand secretary; E. H. Cunningham, Grenada, grand chaplain; J. K. Young, Lexington, grand captain of host; W. H. Carter, Columbus, grand lecturer; G. W. Batson, Hattiesburg, grand principal sojourner; W. J. Buck, Jackson, grand Royal Arch captain; R. K. Smith, Drew, grand master third veil; J. L. Williams, Indianola, grand master second veil; George D. Riley, Houston, grand master first veil; Morris Goldstein, Greenville, grand sentinel.

Grand council officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

C. S. Cullens, New Albany, grand master; L. S. Lippincott, Vicksburg, deputy grand master; W. A. Johns, Corinth, principal conductor of the work; J. F. Dixon, Natchez, grand treasurer; E. L. Faucett, Meridian, grand recorder; R. P. Neblett, Kosciusko, grand chaplain; W. H. Carter, Columbus, grand lecturer; A. C. Vilee, Jackson, grand captain of the guard; J. R. Feasell, Laurel, grand conductor of the council; M. Goldstein, Greenville, grand steward; W. H. Williams, Laurel, grand marshal; W. E. Johnson, Grenada, grand sentinel.

The grand body was honored by the attendance of Dr. Gage Hudson, of Memphis, grand high priest, who delivered a most helpful and instructive address to the convocation Thursday.

It is said by those who attended the annual meetings for many years that this was the most successful convocation from every standpoint in the history of Mississippi Royal Arch Masonry. More than 100 delegates were here from the various chapters. The splendid exemplification of the work by the excellent teams from Coffeeville, Lexington and Jackson was most helpful to all delegates and visiting companions.

THE SEVERING OF MATRIMONIAL BONDS.

One of the most serious questions giving the thinking part of the country concern is the great number of divorces. It is a grave matter when men and women who pledge themselves to love and cherish each other so conduct themselves that the sacred tie which binds them is severed. It is alarming that they are willing to expose to the gaze and morbid curiosity of the world their desire to be relieved of their marriage relations. Unquestionably the frequency of divorce hangs as a dark cloud over the country. It leads to degradation, to moral bankruptcy and woe.

The causes are many, too many to undertake to review in the space of one editorial. One of the main causes for divorce is the loose jointed social life of the day. It comes in some degree of the failure of men, and of a realization upon the part of woman that she needs to look more than ever before after her material wants. Divorce to some extent comes of the benevolent idea abroad that societies of divers kinds can do the work that our mothers did, and that women can best find themselves in "activities". It comes, too, to a remarkable degree of woman's new freedom.

But beneath all this, there is a reason. A careful survey will show what the woman unfortunately mated in the years that are past had to endure.

In the dim and distant past, woman was man's slave. He was the lord of creation. The woman minded her hovel. She got the wood, she made the fires, she cooked the meals and dared not question what the one who called her his wife, said. As the Christian religion has found its way into the hearts and lives of people and of nations, the fetters that made woman a hewer of wood and a drawer of water have been severed. As civilization has advanced, God's crowning work of creation has seen a liberation and an elevation to that pedestal to which she rightly belongs as man's counselor and helpmeet, and not his servant.

Even in less than a half century ago, the woman bound to a brute had no recourse. If she asked for a divorce, society frowned upon her and she was more or less regarded as a moral delinquent. If she married a man that never thought of her womanly wants, or one who thought of her only in a bestial way, why, there was nothing left to her but endure the tyranny or else run the risk of the scorn of both women and men.

Too many men are yet trying these same methods. Fortunately, there is a way open now to the wife whose husband is neglectful, cruel, inattentive, thriftless, maybe dissipated, and libidinous wherever he may go. In short, the pure, good woman now tied to one of the lower animals in human form, can get an absolution of marital relations, and then can go forth knowing that she will be judged for what she is and that a kind world will give her cheer and lend her a helping hand.

But in a large measure, in our judgment, divorces are coming because woman has of her own free will stepped down to man's level, and because she is not maintaining those standards that were shining jewels in the lives of her mother and grandmother.

We are in hearty sympathy with the idea that some steps should be taken to prevent hasty marriages. The five days' advance notice is a step in the right direction.

But let the fathers and the mothers not fool themselves into thinking that a legal enactment can supply what they have failed to give in the home and around the family fireside, sacred scenes which the angels witness and that never fail to get heaven's smiles.

ROAD BUILDING—HOW TO GET THE MONEY(?)

The Sentinel has several times pointed out how, in its opinion, to make certain of the passage of a permanent highway building law when the legislature next convenes, and that is to elect the commissioners by a vote of the people.

The public mind is awakened to the necessity of ceasing to build graveled roads.

Permanent road building is one of the mile posts that must be passed in our progress towards better things.

However, we are not one of those who thinks that the clock will stop and that batter cakes will turn to ashes if we do not get started on building permanent roads at once.

Official statistics show the following road income for the state last year:

Income from gasoline tax 1928	$5,563,228.94
Income from automobile tax	$2,335,549.92
From U. S. Government	$1,230,901.30

Total $9,129,680.16

It is estimated that the increases in gasoline tax imposed by the 1928 legislature will augment the above figures to something like twelve million dollars. But even all that is but a pittance as compared to what will be required.

But we should remember the old mother's exclamation about Susie's going too fast. Haste in getting together what is necessary in a Mississippi road law may make waste.

If a bond issue for a limited amount, then the statute should be so carefully worded that the bonds cannot be sold only as the money is actually used. Interest rates are mighty high now. It is almost a shame that the state of Mississippi should be now paying 6 per cent on any of its debts.

And while framing a road law and providing for the necessary funds, we are wondering how many have thought of curtailing some other public expenditures to help take care of the road debt to be contracted.

But we are reminded that it is the worst sort of species of foggyism to think of cutting expenses or of denying ourselves any of the extravagances of the day. The slogan is now, "On with the dance".

EX-PRESIDENT COOLIDGE'S LITERARY CONTRIBUTION.

The first instalment of Ex-President Coolidge's literary contribution appeared in the March number of the Cosmopolitan. We make no pretense of being a literary critic, but in our judgment the article met high standards. The style was good. The sentences were epigrammatic.

The article gripped the reader's attention. It served to inspire serious thought. It showed that there was a character behind it that was not built upon the sands. It gave an insight into things that beset the presidential mind. It showed a humility of spirit, and that the ex-President is one of those fortunate characters who takes his own measurements and who studies his own limitations. Too many, alas, rush in where heavenly inhabitants refuse to enter.

The article gave a new and impressive view of the President's love and veneration for his father and mother. One, after reading the article, can almost hear the voice of the old father at the foot of the stairway in that simple farm home on the night of President Harding's death, calling "Cal" to tell him what had happened. Calvin's prayer before he came down to his father and his visit to his mother's grave the next morning when he started to Washington, and what he said about the death of young Calvin at the White House taking all "the glory and honor of the presidency" for him, reveals the man as one who trusts in his Maker and in whom men may trust. The world needs much just now that the ex-President reveals in his article. Subsequent articles may be counted on to teach valuable lessons and to cause the men and women of the country to be more tolerant and more sympathetic with their Presidents.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH THE FOLKS?

Sometimes it looks as if the race, at least so far as the American people are concerned, are on the down instead of up grade. The different forms of dishonesty and revolting crimes, such as hold-ups, murders, killing for a thrill, thefts, rapes, etc., look bad for our country.

These crimes in many cases are committed by educated and supposedly highly cultured people, so called Christians. In fact every class both social and moral as well as religious are included. Trusted business men, high in the confidence of their fellows, such as bank embezzlers, public officials, trusted agents of great Christian organizations.

Only a year or two ago two college students murdered and tortured a fellow student in Chicago for a thrill. Last year a boy of good family kidnapped a twelve year old girl, holding her for ransom, and deliberately murdered and mutilated his defenseless victim in California. Recently two students, the sons of wealthy parents, adopted the hold up game, robbing at every opportunity, and as a climax killed one victim for a thrill.

The great Baptist denomination has been robbed at least three times by trusted so called Christian agents to the tune of millions, and the Methodist people have had at least one agent to rob them.

Now comes a bank failure in a neighboring city, robbing the bank people of near a hundred and fifty thousand dollars. An official of long standing and held in the highest esteem by the bank officials.

Then to come down to other forms of criminality, the bad check artist that is abroad in large numbers with the entire tribe on the increase.

The moral standards were never lower than now as shown by the records of the divorce courts, as well as the unfortunate so called triangles that often lead to murder. The old ship of civilization is sailing in strange waters.—Newton Record.

THIS COUNTRY'S ANNUAL GIFT TO EUROPE.

The people of the United States are being taxed to the amount of $332,261,650 annually to pay interest on money borrowed in this country during the World War and which was loaned those countries associated with the United States in the war. This situation comes about by this country's cancelling, making a gift, if you please, of a part of the debt due it for money loaned. After having cancelled a portion of the debt, a term of 62 years was fixed for those nations to pay us. It is officially estimated that in the 62 years, the United States will tax its citizenship a total $8,864,189,650 in interest on money borrowed which was then loaned these nations.

The annual gift being made to the different countries is as follows:

Great Britain	$ 55,325,000
Italy	85,935,000
France	171,065,000
Belgium	14,847,650
Jugoslavia	2,500,000
Finland, Hungary, Poland, Latvia, Lithuania, and Estonia (total)	2,589,100
Czechoslovakia, Rumania, and other nations also	are receiving donations.

Notwithstanding the cancellation of some of the debt these countries owe the United States, they are still spending money recklessly, some of them maintaining large standing armies, and are in a race with this country in an endeavor to have the biggest navy in the world.

The per capita tax on the citizens of this country to take care of a debt these nations should pay, is about $3.

AUDITOR WHITE'S STATEMENT AS TO FINANCES

The Sentinel is giving to its readers this week a statement made by Hon. C. C. White, State Auditor, as to the state's finances. According to Mr. White's figures, and he ought to know, there is being made too much ado about a supposed deficit in the state's revenues which deficit is being urged as a reason for calling the legislature together again. Lots of men in public place want an overflowing treasury so that it will be easier to get funds for pet schemes.

Unless the legislative and executive departments of the state agree on a highway bill in advance of any legislative call, it would be a futile thing to have the legislature convene again. A legislative session would hardly cost less than $50,000 and might run to $150,000. Those at the helm of state should ponder over the situation seriously before thinking of again convening the legislative body.

Mr. White is rendering the state a distinct public service by the figures he gives out from time to time. He is eclipsing all his predecessors in this regard. If the people of the state do not keep track of the state's finances, it is not the fault of Auditor White.

Where Is Your Market?

Undoubtedly the secret of many a failure in advertising campaigns (and there are many of them) lies in the lack of knowledge of just where one's market really is.

To use an extreme illustration, what good could possibly come from advertising corsets in the Police Gazette or plug tobacco in the Ladies' Home Journal?

One manufacturer whose entire product is used by a technical industry made the mistake of using daily newspapers, and afterwards found that there were only 223 concerns in America engaged in that particular industry.

Another house who sells to manufacturers was using a trade paper that circulates among jobbers and retailers and had consumed most of his year's appropriation before discovering that he was missing his market entirely.

The point is, that there are many concerns whose only profitable avenue to sales lies in the use of direct mail.

Before launching upon a campaign of advertising make a survey of your possible market, and if periodicals do not furnish the medium then let us talk to you about good printed matter to be mailed to your prospects.

Operetta Well Presented.

On last Friday evening the teachers and pupils of the Grenada elementary school presented their annual entertainment in the high school auditorium. A fairy operetta, "A Rose Dream", was given by one hundred and thirty pupils. A majority of this number came from the first, second and third grades. A few from the higher grades, took the longer and more difficult parts.

The story was one of eternal appeal to children. Little Rose got lost. The fairy queen and her helpers gave Rose a wonderful visit to fairyland before showing her the way home.

Many say this was the most beautiful number ever given by the elementary school. The wood and fairy folks all appeared, dressed in the most artistic costumes. There were rabbits, fairies, roses, elves, butterflies, the fairy queen and her attendants, little Hop-O-My-Thumb, Can and Can't and even a giant. The groups and individuals interpreted their characters remarkably well. So well did the rabbits perform that one little boy in the audience begged his father to buy him one of "those white rabbits" before they went home. The whole cast showed excellent training. And when the age of the children is considered one marvels that so large a group could be so skillfully managed. The teachers worked long and patiently to do this and the children responded well. The mothers co-operated loyally in working out and making the costumes. But the beauty of the whole group in the last scene, the happy children and the brilliant colors, must have made every one feel that it was worth all it cost and more.

The stage setting was unusually effective and showed careful planning. The music was good. The faculty pupils and parents should feel happy over this entertainment.

B. Y. P. U. Elects.

The senior B. Y. P. U. of the Grenada First Baptist Church on last Sunday, March 17th, elected the following officers to serve during the ensuing quarter:

Grady Roberts, president; Miss Birtine Lott, vice-president; Earl Hooker, secretary; Miss Velma Moss, treasurer; Miss Margaret Ellis, Bible quiz leader; Miss Ailene Perkins, assistant quiz leader; Miss Alethea Betz, chorister; Miss Dit Perry, pianist; J. L. Holimon, leader.

The Union is doing some splendid work and is striving to reach that standard of perfection commonly referred to as A-1.

Burton-Boyet.

Miss Eva Mae Boyett, daughter of Mrs. Rollie Byars, residing just east of Grenada, became the wife of Mr. Ernest L. Burton last Sunday, March 17, the ceremony being said by Rev. E. R. Henderson, pastor of the Central Baptist Church and taking place at the minister's home on Third Street.

The bride is an attractive young woman in many ways. She is popular among a wide circle of friends. The groom is a young man of energy and industry and is well-liked by all who know him. The Sentinel extends its congratulations.

Peot, of New York, who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Countiss. The reception rooms of the home science house were beautifully decorated with spring flowers carrying out the green motif of St. Patrick's day, as did also the refreshments. One feature of the entertainment was the cutting of a large birthday cake by the honoree.

Worried Night after Night as health declined

"I suffered frequently from nervous headaches, and I could not sleep well," says Mrs. Cora Dover, R. F. D. 2, Hickory Grove, S. C. "I was thin and pale. I was so weak I could scarcely walk."

"I tried several remedies but nothing seemed to help me. Night after night I worried because I could see I was going down-hill. I had my children to look after, and I was afraid of what would become of them if anything happened to me."

"I began to take Cardui. It wasn't long until I was beginning to pick up. My strength gradually began to return. I rested better at night and was less nervous. I took several bottles of Cardui, and when I had finished taking it I was in fine health."

Reaches 11th Birthday.

Mrs. John Duke entertained Wednesday afternoon for her young daughter, Miss Mary Lea Duke, in honor of her eleventh birthday. The Easter colors, yellow and white, were carried out in the decorations, contests and refreshments.

After the guests had arrived and presented lovely gifts to the happy honoree, they were carried out to Bledsoe's, where enjoyable outdoor games were played.

In a chewing gum contest in which each guest was told to mold a rabbit out of the gum, Miss Gloria Williams proved the lucky one and received a novelty rabbit as prize.

Lawrence Olson, Jr., received a similar prize for pinning a lettuce leaf nearest the rabbit's mouth, blindfolded.

The children then returned to Mrs. Duke's apartment where they were ushered into the dining room for refreshments. A lovely birthday cake decorated in yellow with white rosebuds and eleven yellow candles, was the centerpiece for the table. The place cards were little Easter rabbits. Favors for the girls were lolly-pop dolls dressed in yellow and white crepe paper and gold-tipped gum for the boys.

Delicious ice cream was served with the birthday cake, Mrs. Duke being assisted by Misses Lippincott and Bull, and Mrs. Byars, who also helped entertain the young folks.

Those who were present to help Mary Lea celebrate the happy event were: Misses Martha Vance Smith, Frances McCormick, Nina Maye Clark, Gloria Williams, Jessie Kerr, Majorie Williams, Virginia Peacock, Grace Cunningham, Carolyn Provine, Joyce Matthews, Adelaide McCaslin, Eleanor Lickfold and Betty Jean Dulweber, Lawrence Olson, Jr., Charles Pope, John Rufus Perry and Harold Perry and Miss Phillips, a grammar school teacher.

CLARENCE SAUNDERS

SOLE OWNER OF MY NAME

What This Business Means to Grenada and Grenada County in Dollars and Cents

Clarence Saunders Store purchased during the year 1928 from Grenada County farmers more than $10,000 worth of home grown fruits, vegetables, potatoes, etc.

We bought locally, mostly from Grenada County farmers, over $12,000 worth of native meats, such as beef, pork, mutton, poultry, etc.

We paid freight, drayage and express for arrival of goods at Grenada $2,603.08.

Local taxes, paid into city and county treasuries, amounted to $356.35.

Insurance premiums, paid mostly to local insurance agencies, totalled $291.05.

Telephone and telegraph tolls cost us $288.00.

We spent more than $800.00 for advertising in Grenada County and another $150.00 for office supplies and stationery.

We spent with local garages for repairs, gas and oil over $600.00.

Local wholesalers sold us more than $11,000 worth of groceries.

Our employees who live and spend their money in Grenada were paid $3,267.06 in salaries and wages.

We purchased real estate and erected a substantial building on Main Street which represents an expenditure of several thousand dollars.

On top of all this money spent locally, we bought out of town the following items which could have been produced in this county:

15,200 sticks of creamery butter, $2200.00 worth of cheese and evaporated milk, 62,956 pounds of meat, lard and bacon and approximately 56,000 pounds of Irish potatoes, all of which were shipped in here. We believe Grenada County farmers should think these facts over and we believe they'll realize there isn't a better place on earth to produce milk, butter, hogs and, we believe, potatoes.

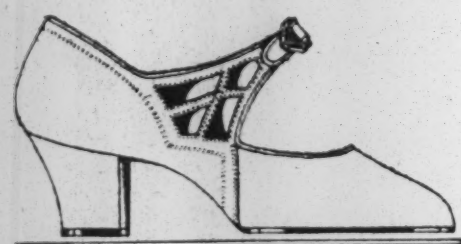

Besides the above we saved the people of Grenada and Grenada County many thousands of dollars in their grocery purchases, not only in those bought from us but from other stores, by bringing cheaper prices to Grenada.

We enumerate the above items for your thought and consideration. The greater part of this money stayed in Grenada and Grenada County and found its way back into local trade channels. We want our friends and customers to know that we are a part of the town and county. We live here. Our employees live here. We do our banking here.

Are you supporting your own Clarence Saunders Store?

25 YEARS AGO IN GRENADA

From the Files of
THE GRENADA SENTINEL

The pleasure which a great many Grenadians shared with the college people about one year ago, was repeated on Friday evening of last week, when Dr. H. K. Piner, of Central Methodist church, Memphis, made a second visit and delighted an appreciative audience with his "String of Pearls". As the subject indicates, this is not so much a lecture as a rare collection of literary gems, sparkling witticisms and amusing anecdotes, the whole being artistically strung upon the thread of Dr. Piner's unique originality.

The ever jolly Lew Henson, of Cincinnati, was visiting among friends here this week.

The Illinois Central pay car distributed its usual stipend among its employees in this city this week.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are going to have a social at the residence of Mrs. W. B.

Wolfe on Friday evening, March 25, from 8 to 11. All adult members of the congregation are cordially invited.

Mrs. J. Hurt, of Tazewell, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Laycock. She is accompanied by her little daughter.

Mr. Scott, claim agent of the Illinois Central, and family, have moved to Grenada and will occupy the Davis residence. Mr. Scott is the popular and capable chancery clerk of Montgomery county, as well as an affable and intelligent gentleman.

Capt. J. L. Collins, the hustling agent for Dr. Earl S. Sloan's famous remedies for man and beast, paid our office a pleasant call Tuesday. We cheerfully commend him as worthy in every sense of public favor and patronage.

Mrs. V. R. James, of Grenada, returned home Wednesday after a few days' visit to our city, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Carr.—Water Valley Itemizer.

Mrs. W. B. Parker and Miss Jessie Parker, of Graysport, were in Grenada this week visiting relatives and friends. The Sentinel acknowledges a pleasant call.

Pallas Brown, the young violinist, will appear at Grenada College Friday evening, March 18. From press reports he is well worth hearing.

Mrs. Lida Owens, of Grenada, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lake, on University Street.—Oxford Globe.

Mrs. A. D. Collins, the lovely wife of our efficient express agent, presented him with a fine 10-pound little girl Wednesday morning.

J. B. Booth, of Sardis, visited here Sunday.

G. A. Guess, of Durant, was a Sunday visitor.

G. B. Shands and C. L. Siveley, of Oxford, were in the city Sunday.

S. Ritchey, of Winona, was a Monday visitor.

of trying to serve the people, has requested that a county wide service be held in the several churches after due notice of such service, to the end that all the people of our group hear a health sermon by the pastor or health lecturer on the last Sunday in this month or not later than the first Sunday in April. It is expected that each community will bear this in mind and be posted to give the people a worth while health program.

Mrs. Cora Blank, who has been in the service of Mr. J. T. Thomas for several years, and who went with Mrs. Thomas and her daughter down in Texas, has returned home. Although in the capacity as a servant, she gets an opportunity to see and hear many things she would not otherwise have the pleasure of seeing and hearing. She is really an asset to the family, and she says she enjoys it and would not have it otherwise. Her years of service in this family is a record breaker, and evinces her efficiency to please her employers.

Jimmie Bostic and his wife, of Chicago, are in the city, called to the bedside of his sick mother, Mrs. Cora Bostic, who has been ill for several months. With all the available medical skill at her service she continues in a serious condition. Her many friends however, continue the hope that she may tide over and be well again.

Uncle Peter Carew who has been sick with a severe case of pneumonia is steadily improving. His many friends, white and colored, have been anxious for his welfare and have, as best they could, administered to his every want. If there comes no backset he will soon be able to again mingle with his friends and be at his post of duty as janitor at the court house where his services are highly prized.

Mrs. Henry Raymond and her daughter, Miss Louvenia, of Chicago, are in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Prof. A. H. Henderson, our farm demonstrator who has been nervously strained on account of his daughter being in the hospital in this city for an operation, is much relieved, the operation having been a success and his daughter on the road to recovery.

PETITION FOR PARDON

To His Excellency,
Honorable Theo. G. Bilbo,
Governor of The State of Mississippi:

We, the undersigned citizens and taxpayers of the State of Mississippi, hereby most respectfully petition Your Excellency to grant a full and complete pardon to John James Howard who was convicted at the January Term, 1928 of the Circuit Court of Grenada County, Mississippi and sentenced to serve a term of ten years on a charge of Arson.

We would respectfully show unto Your Excellency that since the incarceration of Howard in the penitentiary, he has made a model prisoner, and for that reason, was soon made a trusty and assigned to the duty of guarding the other convicts, not trustees, while at work in the field; that on the 12th day of February, 1929, while thus engaged as a trusty on duty as a guard, one Sandy Allred, a reputed desperate convict, attempted to escape, and in so doing, detached a single tree from his plow and advanced upon the driver with the statement that he was going home; while thus advancing upon the driver, who was not armed at the time, and in repeating the statement above mentioned, the said Howard, acting upon instructions from the driver to stop him, fired upon the said Allred, wounding him, and thus preventing him from killing the driver, and also preventing his escape; that the said Howard has, in our opinion, been sufficiently punished, and we believe the ends of justice have been met and the law satisfied. And we further believe that if allowed his freedom, the said Howard will hereafter conduct himself above reproach and as a law-abiding citizen.

Respectfully submitted,

A Continuous March That Keeps A Step Ahead For You

An expenditure of more than $27,000,000 was required last year to expand and improve the Southern Bell Telephone System in the nine southeastern states.

More than 51,000 new telephones were added to the system, convincing evidence of the increasing value of telephone service in every line of business.

This activity and growth reflect the progress of the South east, and the improvement in the service emphasizes the Bell System effort to provide the best possible service at the lowest cost to the user.

At the end of the year there were 960,587 telephones in the Southern Bell System. In addition there were 345,572 telephones owned by other companies and 38,508 telephones in farm homes, connected with the system.

The investment in service reached the enormous total of $199,492,700 on December 31, 1928. It represents such permanent property as 912 central offices with switchboards and other associated equipment; 3,731,357 miles of wire (3.9 miles per telephone); 36,789 miles of pole line and 3,409 miles of underground duct.

To build, operate and manage this great telephone system requires an army of skilled men and women whose payroll amounted to $25,991,300 last year.

The tax bill for the year was also the largest in the history of the company, amounting to $5,235,132. This was an increase of 224 per cent over the tax bill of 1920.

There was a greater number of local and long distance calls and the speed with which they were handled was substantially increased.

Noteworthy as has been telephone progress during the past year, it will not stop. The entire telephone organization appreciates the friendly interest and confidence of the public—a spirit of cooperation which encourages them in their determination to provide the most efficient service at the lowest possible cost to the user.

Health Sermon

The fearful neglect of the people of our group to have regard for their health calls for a warning note to be sounded. The vital statistics show a very high death rate among our people, much of which could be avoided. Carelessness along this line have us exposed to the encroachment of many diseases that lurk in the food we eat, the water we drink and the air we breathe. Many of us pay but little attention to these three mediums through which we are frequently stricken because we are not informed and if informed are neglectful. Prof. A. H. AVERY VIBRATOR Fertilizer Distributor An AVERY PLUS FEATURE

The "Tap-Tap-Tap" Principle Solves Fertilizer Distribution

To go beyond what seems good enough, to be discontented with anything imperfect, is the Avery ideal—established by the founder of this business. That is why a chronic or long-accepted weakness is never found in any Avery implement. Instead you will invariably find an Avery Plus Feature. For instance:

In the Avery Vibrator Fertilizer Distributor an entirely new system had to be created to meet the Avery standards of good work. And good work in this case means a uniform flow of fertilizer—heavy or light as desired—whether the hopper is full, half full or nearly empty. Old systems did not do this. The Avery Vibrator, created by Avery experts, does. It works on a "tap-tap-tap" principle, as you tap a knife or salt spoon to distribute the salt. There is no knocking or jolting—no coffee grinder action. Every move is simple, logical, certain. You get fertilizer where you want it—no more—no less. It does a real job, like it ought to—saves time—saves fertilizer—saves money. This is an Avery Plus Feature—a contribution by Avery to better farming service.

APPEALS FOR CHILDREN

"He is not here; for He is risen". The commemoration on March of the resurrection of Christ nearly nineteen hundred years ago calls that to every Mississippian there is an opportunity to invoke new life, to open the door to a new world for a group of unfortunate children who have not enjoyed the same advantages as the rest of us. To these the Mississippi Children's Home Society, the institution of this state's greatest constructive charity, has meant a preparation for a new life, and eagerly they wait to walk forth into its opportunities. Denied by circumstances no fault of theirs, the natural ties of parenthood, children

STEWARDSHIP AND MISSIONS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 1:6-8; II Cor. 8:1-5.

GOLDEN TEXT—It is required in stewards that a man be found faithful (I Cor. 4:2).

PRIMARY TOPIC—Love Gifts for God.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Love Gifts for God.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What It Is to Be a Christian Steward.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Stewardship of Self, Substance and Service.

I. Witnessing for Christ (Acts 1:6-8).

This is the supreme obligation resting upon believers in this age. While we are not responsible for bringing the kingdom, we are under solemn obligation to witness to the salvation which is graciously provided for all who believe in Jesus Christ.

1. The disciples' question (v. 6). They said, "Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?" The phrase "this time" indicates their perplexity as to the time of the kingdom's establishment. They were entirely right in their expectation of the kingdom, for it had been predicted by the prophets, and announced by Christ as "at hand." However, they were in darkness as to the real purpose of God in calling and establishing the church. This is a matter concerning which there is much confusion today.

2. Christ's answer (vv. 7, 8).

He turned their attention from the desire to know times and seasons, which belong to God, to their supreme duty. They were to be witnesses of Christ to the uttermost parts of the earth, beginning at Jerusalem.

II. Christian Stewardship (II Cor. 8:1-9).

1. Examples of true Christian benevolence (vv. 1-5). The liberality of these Macedonian churches exhibits practically every exalted principle and motive entering into the giving which has God's sanction.

(1) The source of true giving (v. 1). This is said to be the grace of God, by which is meant that the disposition to give freely of our means is created by the Holy Spirit.

(2) They gave from the depths of their poverty, not from the abundance of their riches (v. 2). Their limited means did not cause them to be stinted in their gifts, but their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. On the basis of this philosophy, our poverty ought to be a call for greater generosity, for God has promised that if we give liberally He will give liberally in return.

(3) Their willingness surpassed their ability (v. 3).

God's gifts are reckoned by the degree of willingness, not by the amount given (see v. 12, cf. 9:7).

(4) They were insistent on being allowed the privilege of giving (v. 4). They did not need high-pressure methods to induce them to give.

(5) They first gave themselves to the Lord (v. 5). This is most fundamental to right living, for when one gives himself to the Lord there is no reason for withholding his gifts. If one does not first give himself there will be the desire to retain as much for self as can be done within the bounds of respectability. We should first induce men and women to give their lives to the Lord and then to give their money.

2. Emulation of Macedonian benevolence urged (vv. 6-15). Moved by the generosity of the Macedonian churches, Paul desired Titus to commend to the Corinthians the same grace. This he urged upon them.

(1) Not as a command (v. 8). Acceptable giving must not only be liberal, but spontaneous.

(2) As a proof of the sincerity of their love (v. 8). Love is more than mere sentiment. It is benevolent action toward the object loved.

(3) As the completion and harmony of Christian character (v. 7). The Corinthian church abounded in spiritual gifts such as faith, utterance, knowledge, diligence, and love for their ministers, but the grace of liberality was needed for the harmony of their lives.

(4) The self-sacrificing example of Christ (v. 9). Self-sacrifice is the test of love. All who have enthroned Him as the Lord of their lives, crowned Him Lord of all, will desire to imitate Him in all things.

(5) The true principle upon which gifts are acceptable with God (vv. 10-12).

God does not estimate the value of a gift upon the ground of intrinsic worth, but of the underlying motive of the giver.

(6) Because of common equality (vv. 13-15). Every Christian should give something. The law governing the gift is the ability of the giver.

of disintegrated families are kept here that the boulder between them and life as meant by the Saviour can be rolled away.

Without financial aid from the state, the Mississippi Children's Home Society has given hundreds of children the beginning of a firm, worth-while life which would almost surely have been denied without the society's care. A mother dead, a father in trouble; divorce—these and other cares may take away from a child its birthright of good influences in its natural home.

The Society believes: That a normal child should be reared in its own natural home, providing that home is fit.

That if a child is permanently deprived of a good natural home it can be best cared for in a good foster home.

That homeless and neglected children are entitled to good homes, education, love and happiness.

All these are answered through the work of the society. The children in its care are placed in good homes. Its work is purely humanitarian. By contributing to its up-building and progress, you can become a part of that work. Checks should be mailed to Thad B. Lampton, Treasurer, Jackson, Miss.

Miss. Children's Home Society, Jackson, Miss.

hotels could not make permanent arrangements to use some of the vacant rooms over some of the store buildings up town (?). The Sentinel also wonders if the hotels could not arrange on an equitable basis with some residents in their vicinity for rooms to accommodate the overflow (?). The point is: take care of everybody; never suffer any one who wants to spend the night in Grenada to be compelled to go elsewhere. When a tourist finds himself compelled to go on to another town, he is done an injustice and so is Grenada.

or wire grass, yet where lands are burnt over each year that is all it can be hoped to get. Lespedeza, carpet grass, Johnson grass and other good forage plants cannot stand fire.
While in this county practically two thousand children and adults heard the message that is being brought to the people. The biggest program, while in the county, was at Holcomb school Tuesday night when over two hundred and fifty people were present. This program is to be carried on for a period of three years and will reach every county in the state. Thirteen counties have been visited up to the present time and over forty thousand people have been reached with the message "Stop Woods Fires" because the young children who are in the schools at the present time will be the men and women of future years and will need timber, and if the practice of "burning over" lands continues the timber crop at that time will not be great and Mississippi will have to lose its position as the leading timber producing state in the South.

SAYS BOARD RIGHT
ABOUT SALARY CUTS

agent falls down on his job, a demand should be made of the district agent that he either take him off the job and place another one there acceptable to the board or fire him.
In place of fault finding with the supervisors, I think they should be encouraged in their effort to cut expenses, a thing that very few people appear to know anything about now. We've got to begin to cut somewhere, else we are goners. I live on the Grenada-Calhoun county line. I have been often aided by the Calhoun county agent, but powerfully little by the agents of this county. The Calhoun agents have been stirrers. They get out among the people and get to know the people and the farmers get to know them. I say again that an agent should not be paid altogether over three thousand dollars and if one is had at that price, the board should see that he pursues his work in a way different from the late farm agents of the county.

Yours respectfully,
J. E. SHAW.

CUTTING OFF TRAIN
AROUSES GREENWOOD

Commonwealth stated editorially that the Y. & M. V. Railroad had never shown Greenwood any special consideration and that now the passenger trains out of Greenwood over the Y. & M. V. lines to Memphis run on a schedule of nearly or quite six hours.
The railroad company states as a reason for discontinuing the train that it is being run at a loss of probably $300. per month, and no doubt thinks that the two trains a day to Grenada where connections can be had with the fast I. C. trains ought to satisfy Greenwood and meet the town's needs. What will be the outcome of the controversy, of course, cannot be stated at this time, but it is evident that if the railroad persists in its announcement to take off the train, Greenwood is going to give it a great deal of annoyance.

The train is a matter of interest to Grenada as well as Greenwood. This town would like to see the train continued.

C. T. BELL PASSES AWAY

Mr. C. T. Bell, 63 years of age, passed away at his home in Grenada shortly after nine o'clock Wednesday night, March 20. He had been in a low state of health for some time and Wednesday morning he suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he never rallied. The end came peacefully. Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon by his pastor, Rev. J. H. Holder, of the Methodist Church, after which his remains were laid to rest in Woodlawn Memorial Park, there to await the will and the judgment that must be met by every soul.
Since coming to Grenada some ten years ago, Mr. Bell had devoted his time and his energies to his machine shop and this he did efficiently and honestly. He was tireless and industrious. Mr. Bell was an upright citizen. He believed in honesty for honesty's sake and he practiced what he professed. He was a kindly natured man. He was dependable. He was a good husband, a kind and affectionate father and an obliging and sincere neighbor. He aimed to be fair and just in all things and to live at peace with all mankind. He enjoyed to a marked degree the confidence and the esteem of the community. For many years, Mr. Bell had been a member of the Methodist church.
To his surviving wife and four children, one son and three daughters, and other relatives, The Sentinel tenders sincere sympathy.

NEW TRAIN SCHEDULES

Effective last Sunday, March 17, the schedules of several trains arriving and departing from the Grenada station were changed and the public should familiarize itself with the new time tables. Train 352 now arrives in Grenada at 9:05 a. m., its schedule being moved up fifteen minutes. Train 354, formerly arriving at 3:30 p. m., now reaches here ten minutes later.
On the Illinois Central train No. 1 now arrives at 1:52 a. m. and departs at 2 o'clock instead of 2:03 a. m. and 2:10 Train No. 2 now arrives here at 4:00 a. m. and departs at 4:05 a. m. instead of 3:50 and 3:55. The Panama Limited, No. 7, arrives at 2:37 a. m. and departs at 2:42, its schedule being advanced three minutes.
On the Water Valley division, number 25 comes in at 10:25 p. m., remaining here 25 minutes and departing at 10:50 p. m. Its old schedule was 10:07 and 10:35. STORE AND HOTEL BURN
WEDNESDAY AT LEFLORE

Fire originating in the hotel at Leflore late Wednesday morning destroyed that building and the business establishment of the Dulweber Mercantile Co. adjoining. Both places were burned to the ground.
Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Tabb, who made their home in the hotel, lost practically all their household belongings, managing to save only a pair of shoes. About one-third of the stock in the store, said to be about $8,000 in value, was saved.
The total loss is estimated to be around $15,000, partially covered by insurance.

FARMERS NEXT SATURDAY

Editor Sentinel:—
I want to thank you for your article of last week stating that I had been employed by the Grenada County Farm Development Association, organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in dairying and diversified farming. I'd like for you to grant me space in your valuable paper to publish a few matters for us to get started on at the earliest possible date.
All of us who have gone through this winter on high-priced bought feed, I am sure, realize our only salvation is home-grown feeds and better pastures. Now it will be impossible for me to visit every farmer in the county in time to help plan his feed crop as I would like to do so I want to ask that as many as can who are interested meet me upstairs in the courthouse next Saturday, March 23, at 2 o'clock p. m. At that time we want to plan a real feed crop so that next winter, instead of boarding our cows, they will board us.
Respectfully,
W. C. CURLIE

PREGROVE ANNOUNCES
OPPORTUNE EASTER SALE

Goods Co. is telling the people of this section of its Easter sale which begins today and continues until after the holiday.

When one has the opportunity of buying spring apparel at sale prices before Easter comes, it is an opportunity that one can ill afford to pass by. A four-page circular was issued early in the week by this big store, long established in the confidence of the buying public in this territory, and every word and every price should be carefully studied. The advertisement on page three tells only a small part of the story.
Just now the mind of everyone is turning to thoughts of spring and the season of gaiety and beauty in wearing apparel. A store long famed for its splendid merchandise is now offering you great savings on your wants and it would be well for all to learn more in detail about this Easter sale.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS
TODAY ON LOCAL GROUNDS

With Mayor Doty in the pitcher's box and Marshal Crenshaw wielding the hickory, the first game of the 1929 baseball season in Grenada will begin. Now those who want to see the mayor "fan" the marshal or who want to see the marshal line out a fast hit must be at the school grounds promptly at 3:30 this afternoon. When the first batter is disposed of, Grenada High School will take the field against the nine from Water Valley for a fast game of baseball.

Coach Hathorn has been giving diligent attention to the local squad and he says that there is some promising material on the team. The boys have been rounding into shape and they are on their mettle for the first fray of the season. A good attendance of home rooters will serve a great deal in aiding in the vanquishment of the visitors.

Good seats will be available in the grandstand, the grounds are in excellent condition and a snappy game is promised.
Admission will be 35c. Pupils will be charged 25c. Every ticket purchased is a vote for some high school girl as sponsor for the team. Your vote may put your favorite across.

ADDRESS IS GIVEN BY HEAD OF FEEBLEMINDED SCHOOL

Dr. H. H. Ramsay, superintendent of the Mississippi School and Colony for the Feeble-minded, located at Ellisville, addressed the women of Grenada at a meeting of the Parent Teachers Association Wednesday afternoon. Dr. Ramsay made clear the distinction between feeble-mindedness and insanity and showed how essential it is in his opinion, that separate institutions be provided for these two classes of unfortunate. The work that is being done by the feeble-minded school at Ellisville was interestingly told and the plans for further care and development of this group of children were discussed.
Dr. Ramsay is an interesting speaker, intensely in earnest, and above all appealingly sympathetic. He stated that it will not be long before the institution at Ellisville will be so overcrowded that another such institution will have to be provided in another part of the State and that now only a small per cent of those who apply for admission can be received.

NEGRO BROUGHT BACK TO ANSWER ASSAULT CHARGES

Dennis Jordan, 225-pound negro about 40 years of age, was arrested last Sunday in Lake Providence, La. by parish officers on information that he was wanted here on charges of assault and battery. Jordan, who is a male driver, is being held to await the action of the July grand jury for assaulting Eugene Christopher, prominent Grenada county citizen, of Graysport, several years ago. Mr. Christopher was woods foreman for Geo. C. Brown & Co. at the time and the negro was one of his crew. A dispute arose between them and Jordan struck Mr. Christopher with a heavy iron bar, knocking him unconscious. He was prevented from making a further attack by other negroes in the crew. The negro fled immediately and was not heard of until just recently when local officers received information that he was in Lake Providence.

Sheriff Fred S. Nason and Deputy T. E. Tribble drove to the Louisiana town Monday and brought him back to Grenada, lodging him in jail.

MASONS LIKED GRENADA

The following letter from James H. Johnson, of Clarksdale, past grand master of the Mississippi Grand Lodge, F. & A. M., pays a splendid tribute to the hospitality of Grenada people during the meeting of the grand chapter and grand council held here last week. The letter, which was addressed to T. E. Moody, one of Grenada's most active Masons, is as follows:
"I returned home this afternoon after attending the most pleasant and harmonious session of any of Grand Bodies that it has been my pleasure to attend. You not only have a wonderful temple but everything for the comfort and wants of the Representatives were taken care of. I would like for you to express to the brethren as the occasion may arise my personal thanks. Would also like for you to thank the ladies of the Eastern Star for their splendid meals and services.
"I do not know just when I have enjoyed a meeting more than I did the two days spent with you.
"Since you are coming to Clarksdale next year I do not know just how we are going to be able to come up to your entertainment. However, we will do our best and hope to have the pleasure of seeing you and other members of the Grenada Chapter and Council present."

COURTESY TO TOURISTS
SHOULD BE ACCORDED

Editor Sentinel:
Now that tourists are coming through Grenada in increasing numbers, some passing through and a great many remaining over night, I feel it would be a good idea for all to post ourselves on distance to different towns, best hotels, train schedules, population of our town and such other information as a tourist is likely to inquire about, and give the information to them in a way that will make them glad they asked and give them a pleasant remembrance of the town.

Along with City Beautiful let it be also known as City Polite.
I have in mind a city to the north of us where when one asks for information the answer is given in such a manner that it makes one feel as though he has committed some crime in asking. Contrast this attitude to the uniform politeness one meets with in New Orleans. It has been my pleasure to ask for information quite a number of times and never have I failed to get more than asked for and in a way to make me feel just like I was somebody. Let's pattern after New Orleans. Kindness and courtesy pay.
Respectfully,
J. M. BRYANT.

FELT
BAD
AFTER EATING

"FOUR YEARS AGO, I suffered with heartburn and bilious indigestion. Whatever I ate disagreed with me. Gas on my stomach made me very uncomfortable. My tongue was coated and my color was bad. I needed a good laxative, and so my mother-in-law gave me some Black-Draught and told me to take it. I found it helped me very much, so I bought it for myself. Seems it was the very thing I needed. It is a fine family remedy, and I use it when I need something for constipation. I also give Black-Draught to my children whenever they need something for colds or upset stomachs. Our whole family takes Black-Draught."
